

BATTLE ABBEY SCHOOL

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR ALUMNI, FRIENDS AND SUPPORTERS

INTRODUCTION

1. The privacy and data security of our alumni, friends and supporters is important to Battle Abbey School. This notice specifically relates to personal data processed by the Alumni & Development Office in its work to build a more vibrant, engaged community. The Alumni & Development Office is a department of Battle Abbey School that has responsibility for relations with our alumni and extended community, events, fundraising and charitable giving to the School. The Office works in accordance with the School's Data Protection Policy. In addition, the following notice sets out how the Alumni & Development Office uses your data.

We are committed at every level to making sure that our communications with you are secure, considered and welcome. All personal data is held and processed in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998, the School's Data Protection Policy, which can be found in the policies section of the School's website and other relevant legislation.

Any personal data is stored securely, with access restricted to authorised personnel only. Most information that we hold will have been obtained directly from you and the School's Registration Books (prior to 1992), with some from publicly available sources such as the Post Office's National Change of Address database.

PERSONAL DATA HELD AND PROCESSED

2. Personal data held and processed by the Alumni & Development Office may include:

- Biographical information including your name, gender and date of birth
- Your contact details and communication preferences
- Your education history
- Your clubs and societies affiliations and your other connections with the School
- Your professional activities and employment
- Your interests and extra-curricular activities
- Information you have publicly shared on social media
- Your volunteering activity for the School including alumni volunteering
- Your family and partner/spousal details
- Your relationships with other Battle Abbey School alumni, donors and friends
- Your donation history and wealth assessment information
- Records of communications and interactions we have had with you
- Your attendance at School events

Please note that we do not collect or store any credit/debit card details.

HOW THE SCHOOL USES PERSONAL DATA

3. This data is used by the School to support a full range of activities for our alumni and friends and to ensure that the ways in which we communicate with you, such as sending out School publications, BAFPA Bulletins and newsletters, inviting you to events, or advising you about our alumni benefits and fundraising priorities, are relevant and adhere to your chosen communication preferences.

Here are some further examples of our activities for which we may use your personal data:

- General administration (e.g. event management, processing of financial gifts and donations, internal record keeping)
- Seeking non-financial support (e.g. careers advice to students, sharing of expertise)
- From time to time to create a profile of your interests, preferences and level of potential donations so that we can contact you about our fundraising activities in the most appropriate way and with the most relevant information
- Enable alumni Year Group Representatives to discharge their duties as volunteer helpers under the Alumni & Development Office umbrella

4. Data will not be disclosed to external organisations other than those acting as agents for the School with whom the School has data sharing agreements. The School does not sell or swap any of its data to third party organisations and does not permit its agents to provide its data to third parties.

5. We may use additional information such as geographical information and measures of affluence, where publically available from external sources, to ensure that our communications are relevant to you and your interests. This also enables us to improve our knowledge of our supporters and to make requests for support, including financial support, appropriate. Depending on your privacy settings and interaction with us on social media sites like LinkedIn, Facebook and Twitter, we may also cross-check your data to ensure that it is robust and up to date.

6. We may use photographs or videos of you for the School's website and social media sites or prospectus to advertise the School. If you have any concerns about the use of photographs and videos please contact the Alumni & Development Office.

7. The School is committed to holding this data securely and treating it with sensitivity. Data will only be held for as long as it is necessary for the above purposes as outlined in our records retention schedule.

REQUEST TO VIEW OR STOP PROCESSING PERSONAL DATA

8. You have a right to request copies of the data that we hold about you and to ask us to stop processing your personal data. If you request that we stop processing your data, we will remove personal data with the following exceptions:

- Your name and years of entry and leaving alongside your request to remove your data. We will retain this information to prevent you from being inadvertently contacted in the future.
- Information needed to comply with statutory requirements, but only for as long as those statutory requirements specify (e.g. Gift Aid declarations)
- A coded reference may be attributed to you for reporting and accounting purposes concerning any events attended or donations made.

Our communications are by phone, email and post in order to achieve our role in the most cost-effective way. You can change your communication preferences at any time by post (Alumni & Development Office, Battle Abbey School, High Street, Battle, East Sussex, TN33 0AD), by email: (development@battleabbey.school.com) or telephone (01424 772385).

We may amend this Privacy Notice from time to time. Any significant changes to this Notice or to the way we treat your data will be communicated via the School website or by contacting you directly.
